

MIAMI VALLEY FOLK DANCERS
ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Miami Valley Folk Dancers was held at Soloman Pavillion on January 11, 1970, at 2:45 P.M. The meeting was called to order by John Hunter our Council Chairman, with nineteen members present. Minutes of the previous Council meetings were read and approved.

Pat Hennessey reported a balance of $1,547.⁷³43 in our treasury.

Having no old business, election of new members to the Council was held. These were Florence Seger, Dolores Mann, and Kenneth Steed. Members remaining on the Council are Art Antony and Charlie Ingraham.

A letter received from the Dunsings was read. They will be able to be with us for a Workshop, October 17 and 18, 1970, cost $200.00, plus hospitality. Motion was made by Dick Mann, second by Dick Mills, that we confirm and accept this date. Motion carried.

The work of the Program Committee was reviewed with the floor open for suggestions and remarks. After much discussion Steve Kloeters made a motion, second by Wayne Cheek, that the new Council set up a new Program Committee, to continue as in 1969 and as the council sees fit. Motion carried.

A pro and con discussion on continuing refreshments, brought a motion by Roseanna Mills, second by Steve Kloeters, that refreshments be continued as in the past, with the council setting up a committee. Motion carried.

John Hunter our out-going Chairman, gave special thanks to all members for their cooperation during the past year.

Dick Mann asked that we give a special thanks, to all out-going council members, especially Pat Hennessey who was so faithful to open shop.

Pat Hennessey made a motion to adjourn, second by Dolores Mann.

Respectfully submitted
