

1974?

Aiding Festival

Serving as treasurer and ticket chairman for the International Festival, A World A 'Fair,' at the Dayton Convention center May 31 through June 2 are Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wolff, Sr., both prominent in civic and cultural affairs. The couple brought the Duquesne university Tamburitzan programs to Dayton on two occasions. A pre-festival sale of tickets now is in progress at Sears stores and at Rike's downtown store, and at the convention center beginning May 20. Tickets also are available at the office of the Dayton Council on World Affairs in the Central YMCA and by mail from Mrs. Wolff, 2357 Willowgrove avenue, Kettering, O. 45409; phone 293-9750. Ethnic groups will present entertainment, offer native foods and sponsor 135 exhibits and booths. Twenty-seven ethnic cultures will be represented.