

MIAMI VALLEY FOLK DANCERS
FIRST COUNCIL MEETING - 1977

DATE: Jan. 18, 1977, 8:00 P. M.

PLACE: Ballinger's home

ATTENDING: J. Pappas, B. Cantrell, S. Ballinger, L. Donley

CHAIRING: J. Pappas

OLD BUSINESS: It was reported that Frank and Madge Hart wish to give up co-chairmanship of the Jane Farwell weekend because they could get no reply from Jane. Grace Wolff seems to be Jane's only acceptable channel of communication to MVFD. Since we had nothing in writing committing her to appear for the planned weekend, Bruce agreed to write her for this commitment. Vera Fisher will replace the Harts as co-chairperson for the weekend.

NEW BUSINESS: New officers for 1977 were chosen as follows:

John Pappas, chairperson

Mary Hill, vice chairperson

Bruce Cantrell, alternate vice chairperson

Sam Ballinger, treasurer

Libbie Donley, secretary

Tri-city will be April 2 at Lohrey. Ken and Jewel Steed were

Ken and Jewel Steed were chosen to head a publicity committee. Suggestions from council members were: large posters placed in shopping centers, flyers posted in public places, working through Julie Maxton at DCOWA, enlisting the help of the City of Dayton Recreation Dept., and getting to the young people in local colleges.

Rose Anna Mills was unanimously supported for Refreshment committee chairperson.

John Pappas asked for suggestions for a Fall weekend instructor.

Program committee selections were:

Charlie Castellano - 6 months, to be succeeded by Adele Nellis or Leslie Hyll.

Ann Ballinger - one year

Hulon Shows

Marge Darragh

Carolyn Stovall

Basic repertoire was discussed in terms of (a) who should determine its scope? (b) how should the club implement its effectiveness with old and new members?

ADJOURNED: 10:00 P.M.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

Libbie Donley
