

MVFD Newsletter, March 5, 1987

It will probably be several more weeks before we can return to Solomon Pavilion. Arrangements for repairs for the floor are progressing slowly. At least we are fortunate to have a temporary location. Though everything isn't perfect (like parking!), we seem to be surviving rather nicely.

TRI-CITY will be held in Columbus on Saturday, April 4, 1987. Activities begin at 1:00 PM. The cost for the entire day, including dinner, is $12.00. As in the past, MVFD members will receive a $3.00 rebate if they attend a teaching session. The costs for individual events are as follows:

Afternoon Teaching Session	$3.00
Dinner	$6.50
Evening Party	$4.00

Registration forms (with further details and directions to Immaculate Conception Church) have not yet arrived from Columbus.

A GREEK ETHNIC SUNDAY will be held on March 8. So bring your favorite Greek dish (or a suitable imposter) and enjoy an afternoon of Greek dancing. Request dancing begins at 2:30. Teaching begins at 3:00.

According to the Program Committee future ethnic Sundays will be as follows:

April	Tri-City Review
May	Scandinavian
June	Armenian
July	USA
August	Universal (Universal what?)

Those who have made arrangements with Zora for the bus trip to Greenville to see the Duquesne University Tamburitzans, should meet at the Solomon Pavilion parking lot at 5:45 on Saturday, March 14. The bus departs promptly at 6:00.

If you have any suggestions for a mini-workshop (or anything else!) please convey them to a member of the Council. We very much want Thursday evenings to be enjoyable for all.
