Pages 18 and 19 of the June - August Viltis Magazine are devoted to the Miami Valley Folk Dancers in honor of their 35th anniversary. Do save November 7 and 8 for the celebration! My personal address list is incomplete so please tell others. We want to inform especially our former members and all the other folk dancers who, with their fresh enthusiasm and vigor, joined us for our earlier weekends to make them exciting and in turn give status and strength to our group.

Note the Viltis ad. We are planning a home-cooked dinner for Saturday evening and a home-cooked celebration dinner for one o'clock on Sunday. Might you act as an organizer and talk to people in your group or area, and let us know their interests? We will try hard to please. Example: At no extra charge, with everyone bringing his own brown-bag lunch, we could have a slide showing at noon, Saturday. Evan Larkin has an abundance of beautiful pictures. Are you interested?

The cost of the whole weekend, including four sessions, two dinners, snacks and syllabus, will be about $25.00, but items will be priced separately so choices can be made. In early October details will reach all who receive this letter, all on our regular MVFD mailing list, plus those who answer the ad, which will continue to appear in Viltis.

A reply from you now would be very helpful and encourage us to go really all out to make this a wonderful occasion. Please give us feed back. Will you plan to come? Are you unable to come? We need addresses for others. Helpful suggestions are welcome. Is it just possible that someone might want to underwrite the expenses of an additional guest leader who has been a personal favorite? Think about it! Mostly, however, we would like to know that YOU are planning to come. Please write soon.

Love and fun,
