

MIAMI VALLEY FOLK DANCERS

MAY, 1988 NEWSLETTER

40th anniversary of Israel will be celebrated by the Miami Valley Folk Dancers on Thursday, May 26, 1988. Israeli dances will be taught during the 7:00-8:00 teaching time. The program will feature Israeli dances, although other dances will be done as they normally are. Please encourage any of your friends who especially enjoy Israeli dancing to come.

International folk dancing is held at the south gym at Antioch College every Friday night. Ray Gottschall is the leader.

- 8:00 - 9:00 Beginners Class
- 9:00 - 9:30 Easy Requests
- 9:30 - 11:30 Requests, review, some teaching

Please note: The floor of the south gym has recently been refinished with Tung Oil for dancing. You must bring a pair of clean, soft soled shoes with you and change shoes at the entrance to the dance. Tennis shoes, opanci, moccasins, stocking feet, and bare feet are acceptable footwear for dancing in the south gym.

Bad news:

During the past year, we have enjoyed sharing our dancing with Jane Jabour. Her husband has accepted a fellowship in pulmonary medicine at University of Virginia and they will be leaving Dayton next month. Unless a more appealing job comes her way, she plans to devote her life to subversive activities in Washington D. C. Jane wishes to thank all of the MVFD for their help and considers it a privilege to have been part of the group. We will miss her and hope that she and her husband will return to this area so she can be one of our regulars again.
