

Second Regular Meeting of the Miami Valley Folk Dance Council

Date: December 5, 1988
Place: Home of Sam Ballinger
Attending: Sam Ballinger, Dick Clair, Joanne Dombrowski, Leslie Hyll, Louise Van Vliet

The Treasurer reported a balance of $2,799.25 in the treasury as of December 1. The net result of the workshop was a loss of $92.95. Attendance at the workshop is given below.

Saturday:	Morning	61	Sunday:	50
	Afternoon	76
	Evening	70

Council members rated the workshop a success, despite the slight financial loss.

Tri-City will be held in Dayton on Sunday, April 9, 1989. Sam and Sarah Fleischer will be asked to organize this event. (Alternate choices for co-chairs were Gitta Reck and Ted Eltzroth.)

The New Year's Eve party will be held at Dot Santi's house. Sam and Ann Ballinger have volunteered to chair this event. The charge for non-members will be $3.00. Members will be asked to contribute refreshments.

Council discussed the possibility of having a Greek workshop with John Pappas in September. The alternate plan is to arrange a Hungarian workshop with Andor Czompo in November.

Council approved payment for Cityfolk membership and the Viltis ad. A motion was made to spend $75 for an ad in the program book for the Masowsze performance in February. Motion passed.

Leslie Hyll will investigate the possibility of having an evening or Ethnic Sunday workshop with Glen Morningstar.

Lou Hyll will be asked to research the cost of a new record player for the group.

Council approved membership for Lorraine Fortner.

Meeting adjourned at 9:00.

Respectfully submitted,

Joanne Dombrowski
