

 Miami Valley Folk Dance Newsletter **

We hope that those of you who attended the Aman Workshop enjoyed the afternoon of dancing. The expenses for this event were less than expected. And so we had a special "Ethnic Saturday" (with three teachers!) at nominal cost to the group.

And now for the next set of ethnic activities....

The April Ethnic Sunday will be Bulgarian. The dances for this ethnic Sunday were chosen to appeal to a variety of dancers. There should also be time for request dancing. So please do come! A Bulgarian dish for dinner would be fun and much appreciated. (But anything edible is fine.)

The May Ethnic Sunday will be English. Further details will be forthcoming soon.

April 15 is important! Your taxes are due---and so is your dinner reservation for Tri-City. Tri-City will be held in Cincinnati on Saturday, April 30, 1994. The cost for the entire day is $10 (Dinner $7, Party $3, Teaching $3). Make checks payable to Cincinnati Folk Dancers. Send to

Cincinnati Folk Dancers
c/o Bruce Yanoshek
2833 Hoff Avenue
Cincinnati, Ohio 45226

A flyer with further details (schedule, map etc) is available on the counter. Mike Clark is coordinating this event. Feel free to hassle him about further details.

Slavic Roots Run Deep is an evening of music and dance from the regions of former Yugoslavia sponsored by Cityfolk on Saturday, April 16 at 8 PM at the Dayton Convention Center Theatre. If you hurry, you may still be able to obtain a ticket from Carole Pappas (at a reduced rate).

The annual Open House will be held on May 19. Ann Ballinger and Harry Khamis are collaborating to present an enjoyable evening of easy dances that will entice your friends to become avid folk dancers. We encourage everyone to bring a friend--and some refreshments to share with our guests.

Finally, the Program Committee would like to encourage members to take home the "Red Book" when preparing for a program. It contains a complete inventory of dances, and also lists (at the front of the book) those dances that have been recently taught.

Happy dancing !

Jaenne