

34th Annual
TRI-CITY
 FOLK DANCE FESTIVAL

SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1997

It's time once again for our favorite annual activity - the Tri-City Folk Dance Festival. We will learn new dances, wear ourselves out with the best aerobic activity on Earth, have a good meal, meet great people, and just plain have a great time! The Festival is in Cincinnati this year, at the University Branch YMCA (as usual), with a dinner catered by the popular Bruce Yanoshek.

Taft Road becomes Calhoun Street. Hopple becomes Martin Luther King.

Taft/Calhoun and McMillan are both one-way streets.

Parking is at meters, so bring quarters, and remember to feed the meters over the course of the day.
