A Treasurer's report is attached.

Old Business:

1. Mike Clark updated council on the State Square Dance Convention which will be held in Dayton in 2001. Stuart Lewis is in charge of the programing.

There was a discussion of the possibility of a Folk Dance room at the Convention. There is a possibility for a demonstration or instruction from MVFD.

MVFD will participate in the 2001 Convention. We will work towards a two-two and one half session on Saturday, and a one-two hour session on Sunday. We would like to have two demonstrations. Mike will present these possibilities to Stuart Lewis.

Nothing else from MVDC.

2. World Affair was approached about MVFD demonstrating. We can definitely perform on the informal stage. We will apply for 2000. We will have a table set up in the entrance hall in 2000. Other possibilities for demonstrations will be pursued.

3. We will have live music performed either the last Thursday in July or the first Thursday in August.

4. Carolyn will contact Leslie Hyll about Web advertising.

5. Jim Rohal will contact stations for public service announcements.

6. The Summer picnic is set for August 15, 1999 at shelter # 3 at Delco Park from five to eight p.m.
